

TM01 – Termination of Appointment of a Director

Companies House form TM01 should be used to terminate the appointment of a non-executive director with Companies House. There is no legal distinction between the appointment of any director with Companies House. There is no legal distinction between executive and non-executive directors. The form must be filed with Companies House.

This document is in PDF format and can be found on the Companies House website by clicking on the following link:
<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/termination-of-a-director-tm01>

Director

The termination of appointment of a director with Companies House is the form used to terminate the appointment of any director with Companies House. There is no legal distinction between the appointment of any director with Companies House. There is no legal distinction between executive and non-executive directors. The form must be filed with Companies House.

This document is in PDF format and can be found on the Companies House website by clicking on the following link:
<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/termination-of-a-director-tm01>