

PROP.SP.22 - Form N323 - Court

The PROP.SP.22 - Form N323 - Court Warrant of Control is to be used where a landlord has obtained a court order for example rent arrears, and the debtor has failed to pay.

The up to date version of it can be downloaded from the relevant page: <https://www.moneyclaimonline.co.uk/locations/form-n323-request-for-warrant-of-control>

Once you have opened the temporary download page on the Money Claim Online website, you should save a copy to a location of your choice and delete the page.

A warrant of control can also be applied for by a County Court bailiff.

A warrant of control is one of several types of court order. It gives a County Court bailiff authority to enter the premises of the debtor. If the bailiff is authorised to remove the debtor's goods, the bailiff is authorised to remove them.

For more information about enforcement orders, see the Section 8 Possession Order.

Warrant of Control

A Warrant of Control is the court form used to enforce a court order requiring a tenant to pay money, for example rent arrears.

You can download the form from the Money Claim Online website by clicking on this link: <https://www.moneyclaimonline.co.uk/locations/form-n323-request-for-warrant-of-control>

Once you have opened the temporary download page on the Money Claim Online website, you should save a copy to a location of your choice and delete the page.

A warrant of control can also be applied for by a County Court bailiff.

A warrant of control is one of several types of court order. It gives a County Court bailiff authority to enter the premises of the debtor. If the debt is not paid, the bailiff is authorised to remove the debtor's goods to recover the money owed.

For more information about enforcement orders, see the Section 8 Possession Order and the other types of enforcement order.